THAT IDAHO RULING.

It is an agreeable sign to note that Judge Berry had judicial sense enough to discharge the man Bertram Helm, who had been committed for perjury because he took the elector's oath in Idaho. It looked, for a time, as though the Judge who knows as much about law as our own Foreman did when he came here (and heaven knows that was precious little), and who has about the same disposition to cure the evil of Mormonism, were going to be carried away with the notion that he had a right to investigate the quality of the man's act in severing his connection with the Church. No point is more clearly settled than that it is none of the Judge's business what may have induced the man to make the severance, or whether it was in good faith or bad. The act once performed, the law has been complied with, and the functions of the court are at an end when it stands established that the severance was made. Manifestly, it would be absurd to undertake an investigation into the motives of a man in performing an act, as it is beyond human power to learn any other motive than that which the man himself may give. The reasoning of the court, that if the severance were not made in good faith, the act is a fraud, and being a fraud there is no severance, presents a logical deduction which the court was evidently not equal to. It is this: If a man who leaves a church, but does not do so in good faith, still remains a member because the act is fraud, and fraud is no act; then if a man joins a church and does not do so in good faith, the act is fraud and the man has not joined at all. Hence, before a man could be shown to be a member of a church, on the reasoning Judge Berry undertook to interpose in the Helm case, it would have to be established that the joining was in good faith. This is the logical result of Judge Berry's very foolish objection or course of reasoning.

That it is no business of the court to enquire into the quality of the act, is clearly demonstrated in United States Supreme Court rulings; it is a sufficient reason in the law to justify an act, that the act has been done agreeably to the law. If Judge Berry shall remain on the bench any length of time, he is likely to become more familiar with the law he is sent here to administer. There is much room for learning and the Judge shows a commendable spirit of inquiry.

It is to be hoped that Governor West has not forgotten that the people of Utah recall his efforts in Washington to secure the passage of a bill that would make him the autocrat of Utah by placing within his own power the appointing, directly and indirectly, of something over 3,000 officials for this Territory. If the Governor proposes to convince the people of Utah that his desire is to benefit them, and with such a record behind him, it would be well to drop the executive habit of falsifying in regard to Utah. Heaven forbid that the liberties and rights of the people of Utah should have to rest upon the disposition of such a Governor West. The record is a trifle tough, and the willful design to do wrong by the misuse of executive authority and influence is not so short in memory as to be lost sight of. We are familiar with the tactics of hypocrites, and must be wary of those who have once and again resorted to them.

Of course, Hon. John T. Caine is elected Delegate to Congress for Utah. But there was a painfully small vote, so far as present returns show. Some of these days an election in Utah will go to the minority by default, and it will be due wholly to the tactics of the dominant party. It does not pay to take it for granted that you will have everything your own way. If the cause is worthy of support, it is worthy of a vigorous support; if the man be worthy of nomination and is chosen as the standard-bearer of his party, it is not only his duty, but the party and the principles that every citizen be filled with sufficient interest to strike blows for or against in the issues. The indifference of party leaders is not due to lack of sympathy, but to supreme confidence, but we question if the party leaders can justify complaint that voters manifest the same disinterestedness that they see in the conduct of their leaders. It is not right.

THE SPECIAL from Pocatello, which appeared in Tuesday's HERALD, should have closed by saying, "Hawley will be electd." So it was written by our special correspondent, but some telegraph operator, whether from sympathy or stupidity, made it read, "Hawley will not be electd." And the bull was printed. Everything THE HERALD has said points to the belief in Mr. Hawley's election, and that it should say he would not be, is a palpable bull, and one for which THE HERALD is not responsible.

IN DOUBT.

At this writing the result of the great battle of the ballots yesterday is in doubt. Returns have been received from all save a few of the States, and as to the missing ones it is pretty well known how they have gone. Little has come from California, but we have placed it in the Republican column, regarding it as having gone to that party. The Republicans have gained wherever the vote has been counted in Michigan, and have undoubtedly carried that State by a small plurality, though somewhat larger than that of 1884. The Greenbackers and Democrats have held their own, and the Prohibitionists have gone back to the Republican ranks whence they came. The Democrats have gained in Illinois, and it is probable will elect their Governor, but not the Presidential ticket. Wisconsin was never claimed by the Democrats, who will not, therefore, mourn when they read how the enemy has gained there. It is somewhat unexpected, but Cleveland has again held Connecticut, though by a reduced plurality, estimated at not over 1,000. It also seems that the Democrats have Indiana, though the returns from there are very incomplete. Indiana is always behind in the ascertainment of election results. At the last three contests it took her days to learn how she had voted, and better time, it now appears, will not be made on this occasion. Both parties claim the State, and the Democrats are confident that the victory is with them.

The doubt all lies in the great State of New York. Both parties have made wonderful gains, and both claim to have won by a small plurality. The seaboard counties have stood by Cleveland and will send him to Harlem bridge with a majority between 75,000 and 75,000, which would seem to be sufficient to overcome the increased Republican vote in the interior. It is undoubtedly true, as charged, that New York City Democrats knifed Cleveland to some extent, but not to the degree that was alleged in early bulletins, for while his vote does not equal the full Democratic vote, it falls but little short of it. The Harrison vote in the interior counties is simply wonderful, though we do not believe it will be enough to elect.

THE HERALD admits that the showing this morning is not what we hoped and expected, but we are neither discouraged nor disheartened. We believe that while New York is very close, probably as close as it was in 1884, the plurality will be on the right side, and Mr. Cleveland will receive the electoral vote of the Empire State. Without that vote, he will be defeated, with it his election is certain.

It may be a day or two before the result shall be ascertained. It is apparent that the official count will be necessary to decide in New York, and New York will decide the contest. Meantime, Democrats should not be discouraged or give up the struggle.

Fatality in a Mine.

ASHLAND CITY, Ala., November 6.—On Saturday afternoon, while four gold miners were in a pit thirty-five feet deep the sides caved in. John Wheeler was taken out dead, James Jones and Frank Smith are dying. William Moore was struck, while unseen, on his head with a pickaxe and fatally hurt.

British Bids.

LONDON, November 6.—The currency commission made a report. It advocates the co-operation of England with the United States, Germany and the Latin Union to secure the restoration of bi-metalism.

Parliament re-assembled to-day. In the House of Lords Salisbury stated, in response to an inquiry, that the papers relating to the Sackville affair will be issued to government tomorrow. In the meantime, he would reserve his statement in regard to the affair.

The Parnell commission met to-day. Parnell was present. Several witnesses gave testimony in relation to the outrages.

BIRMINGHAM, November 6.—In a speech, to-day, Gladstone said he considered it his duty to remain in public life until the Irish question is definitely settled.

EDINBURGH, November 6.—In the case of Parnell against the Times Judge Kenner enounced the decision on the question of the jurisdiction raised by the Times counsel. The Judge ruled that court had jurisdiction.

The Prussian Elections.

BERLIN, November 6th.—The results of the Prussian elections in 243 districts are as follows: Conservatives, 83 seats; Free Conservatives, 41; Centrists, 47; National Liberals, 46; Freisinnige, 15; Poles, 7; Danes, 2; Guelphs, 2. All Berlin members have been re-elected.

It was once supposed that scrofula could not be eradicated from the system; but the marvelous results produced by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla disprove this theory. The reason is, this medicine is the most powerful blood purifier ever discovered.

"It's only a question of time," and a short time, too, as to when your rheumatism will yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.

IN HANGS IN DOUBT.

opened foggy and misty in this city, but by 10 o'clock the sky cleared and the sun shone brightly. The indications are for clear weather throughout the State. The prospect is of a heavy vote.

PHILADELPHIA, November 6.—The present delegation in Congress, from Pennsylvania, is composed of twenty Republicans and eight Democrats. Under the new apportionment of the last legislature the districts were almost entirely changed and the election for congressmen, to-day, was the first under this new apportionment. Returns thus far received show the election of the following congressmen: Those marked X, are members of the present Congress, X, First District Henry H. Bingham, Republican; X, Second District, Charles O'Neill, Republican; X, Third District, Samuel J. Randall, Democrat; X, Fourth District, William D. Kelley, Republican; Fifth District, A. C. Harmer, Republican; Sixth District, Smedley Darlington, Republican; Eighth District, William Mutchler, Democrat; Ninth District, J. B. Brunner, Democrat; Tenth District, M. Mariot Brasins, Republican; Fourteenth District, J. W. Rife, Republican; Fifteenth District, N. B. Wright, Republican; Seventeenth District, Charles R. Bucknell, Republican; Nineteenth District, Levi Maisen, Democrat; Twentieth District, Charles M. Bayne, Republican.

PHILADELPHIA, November 6.—Carbon County, Cleveland, 3,000 plurality, a Democratic gain of 58. Centre County, Cleveland, 500 plurality, a Democratic gain of 62. Adams County, Cleveland's plurality will probably slightly exceed 300. Warren County, Harrison, 1,500 plurality, a Republican gain of 343.

1884—Total vote, 898,864; Cleveland, 392,780; Blaine, 473,894; St. John, 13,283; Butler, 16,992.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, November 6.—The weather is cloudy and threatening rain. The vote is light so far. The Signal Service reports cloudy weather throughout Illinois.

8.30 p.m.—From returns received at the City Hall up to this hour it is estimated that Cleveland's plurality in this city will be from 5,000 to 6,000, and that Palmer (Democrat), for Governor, will have a plurality of from 7,000 to 8,000. Returns from county towns and county districts in Cook County will, to a great extent, neutralize this. In 1884 Blaine carried the city 2,890 plurality, and Cook County by 8,642. In the same year, Carter H. Harrison (Democrat), for Governor, carried the city by about 9,000 plurality, but county towns reduced this to 123. Very few returns have been received from counties in Illinois. Polls outside of Cook County are held open till 7 p.m., and in many places the vote will not be reported before morning. A few towns in Republican counties show a slight gain for Harrison over Blaine's vote in 1884, while Fifer, for Governor, falls behind Harrison in nearly every place.

CHICAGO, November 6.—A very large vote is reported from all points. The ticket is a long one, and the full count will not be made till very late. All reports so far received outside of Cook County show a small Republican majority, which if maintained will give Harrison a 7,000 gain over Blaine's vote in 1884. Smith, Democrat and Labor, has undoubtedly defeated Van Schaak in the Fourth District.

CHICAGO, November 6.—Two hundred and eighty-three precincts of Chicago—Harrison, 47,699; Cleveland, 49,075; Fifer, 46,510; Palmer, 53,032.

Eighty-two precincts in twenty-one counties in Illinois, outside of Cook County, show a net Republican gain of 1,300 for President. The entire vote of the State outside of Cook County, in 1884 showed a Republican plurality of 16,185. The estimated Republican plurality in Cook County for President is from 1,000 to 2,000; estimated Democratic plurality for Governor in Cook County, 3,000.

Three hundred and four precincts in Chicago give Harrison 50,877; Cleveland, 53,090; Fifer, 50,179; Palmer, 56,414.

1884—Total vote, 672,567; Cleveland, 312,357; Blaine, 357,473; St. John, 11,884; Butler, 10,709.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, November 6.—The weather may be classed as raining throughout Ohio. It is everywhere reported cloudy and threatening. Here a heavy shower fell before 10 o'clock. The sky is darkly overcast. Voting is progressing very rapidly. Fully half the registered vote was cast before 9 o'clock. In many precincts two-thirds of the vote was cast at that hour. The rain which began between 9 and 10 with a heavy shower, continued slowly with a falling temperature. There was not at noon any prospect of clearing. A fourth of the registered voters it is reported cast their votes at 10 o'clock. The whole vote will probably be cast despite the weather.

COLUMBUS, November 6.—Reports thus far from the State show a big vote is being cast early in the day. At the rate it is progressing it will be unprecedented.

At Urbana an arrest has been made for illegal voting, and two arrests for creating a disturbance.

At 1.40 this afternoon Judge Thurman alighted from a coupe at the polling place of the Sixth Ward precinct, and cast ballots for the Democratic ticket. Owing to the rain the coupe was driven up within a few feet of the window, and without assistance the Judge walked across the pavement and handed in his ticket, which he had ready folded in his hand.

CINCINNATI, November 6.—Over 98 per cent. of the registered vote in Cincinnati was polled to-day. The comparison in Ohio is made with the Governor's vote of 1887, when Foraker's plurality was 25,324. There are 2,304 wards and precincts in the state. Nineteen precincts show a net Democratic gain of 181.

Democrats concede Hamilton County with the possible exception of one candidate.

1884—Total vote, 784,801; Cleveland, 388,280; Blaine, 400,082; St. John, 11,209; Butler, 5,170.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, November 6.—The Polish vote, on which Van Schaak counted as usual, went strongly for his opponent, Barwig, Democratic candidate in the Second District, now represented by Guenther, Republican, has probably defeated McFetdase, Republican candidate, by a small majority. This will give the Democrats a majority of the congressmen in the delegation.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, November 6.—The weather is warm and the election quiet. 1884—Total vote, 109,264; Cleveland, 62,629; Blaine, 46,278; St. John, 238.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., November 6.—Rain is falling throughout the State. Returns indicate Democratic gains here and at Bowling Green.

NEW YORK, November 6.—A Herald bulletin says Speaker Carlisle was elected by a handsome majority.

LOUISVILLE, November 6.—Kentucky, in spite of the rain, has given Cleveland the usual Democratic majority. The figures will be near 40,000. Congressman Finley, Republican, has probably beaten Congressman Wilford in the Eleventh District. John A. Wilson, Republican, has carried the Tenth District, and the Ninth is entirely uncertain.

1884—Total vote, 275,913; Cleveland, 152,951; Blaine, 118,122; St. John, 3,139; Butler, 1,691.

TENNESSEE.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., November 6.—The weather is cloudy. A full vote is being cast. Party lines are strictly adhered to. Limited polling precincts create the fear that all votes cannot be deposited. At one booth five votes must be cast every minute to get the full vote in.

1884—Total vote 260,558; Cleveland, 133,365; Blaine, 125,690; St. John, 1,146; Butler, 957.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Va., November 6.—Reports from various parts of the State show that the weather is clear. A very heavy vote is being polled.

LYNCHBURG, Va., November 6.—Lynchburg gave a Democratic majority of 268, against 166 in 1884.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., November 6.—Cleveland carries the city of Alexandria by 142 majority. Agnew, Republican, for Congress, 74 majority. The county gives Republicans a majority of 240.

RICHMOND, Va., November 6.—The city gives about 1,600 majority for the Democrats. The estimated vote in eight counties and the city indicate a Democratic loss of from 1,200 to 5,000 over 1884. Norfolk gives Harrison a majority of 503. Bowden, Republican, for Congress, 618 majority. Official and semi-official returns from twelve counties and cities indicate Democratic losses of about 1,600.

HARRISBURG, Va., November 6.—Sixteen out of twenty-four precincts in this county show a net Republican gain of 339 over 1884.

RICHMOND, November 6.—In the Sixth Congressional District Edmunds, Democrat, is elected. This district was last represented by Hopkins, Labor candidate.

NORFOLK, Va., November 6.—This city gives Harrison a majority of 583; Bowden, Republican, for Congress, 618 majority. The official and semi-official returns from twelve counties and cities indicate Democratic losses of about 1,600.

1884—Total vote, 234,822; Cleveland, 145,495; Blaine, 139,182; St. John, 143.

NEW JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY, November 6.—Votes are being polled rapidly. The silent vote confuses calculation, as it points to a change of feeling and some scratching. Prohibitionists for the first time have reopened the fight.

ELIZABETH, N. J., November 6.—Bahway, N. J., in 1884 gave Cleveland 4 majority; it gives Harrison 45 majority. Linden, Union County, gives Cleveland 173, Harrison 246, Fisk 4. Kean, Republican, for Congress, 251, Geisenbainer, Democrat, for Congress, 167.

TRENTON, N. J., November 6.—Harrison carries Mercer County by an estimated plurality of 600.

NEWARK, N. J., November 6.—The Sixth District complete gives Harrison 36 plurality.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., November 6.—Middlesex County gives Cleveland 890 majority.

TRENTON, N. J., November 6.—Harrison carries Mercer County by an estimated plurality of 600. Buchanan, Republican, is elected to Congress in the Second District, carrying Mercer County by over 500.

TRENTON, November 6.—Trenton gives Cleveland 5,448, and Harrison 5,837, with two precincts to hear from.

Somerset County gives Cleveland 2,854, Harrison 2,684, Fisk 180.

Morris County give Harrison 260 plurality.

Gloucester County gives Harrison 886 majority.

Cape May County, with one township to be heard from, gives Harrison 176 majority.

1884—Total vote, 260,753; Cleveland, 127,778; Blaine, 133,336; St. John, 6,153; Butler, 356.

MASSACHUSETTS.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., November 6.—Cloudy and warm, with prospects of clearing up.

Boston, November 6.—The pleasant weather is bringing out a large vote.

Boston, November 6.—Cleveland has about 10,000 majority in Boston. Every Republican Congressman is elected, except one—a gain of two.

Boston, November 6.—The Presidential election of Boston complete gives Harrison 27,312, Cleveland 36,159.

Boston, November 6.—Sixty-five towns and cities of New Hampshire, give Harrison 8,326, Cleveland 8,326. The same places in 1884, gave Blaine 7,793; Cleveland 7,988; for governor, the same towns gave Goodell, Republican, 8,480; Anderson, Democrat, 6,080.

1884—Total vote, 363,351; Cleveland, 122,352; Blaine, 146,724; St. John, 9,923; Butler, 24,382.

WEST VIRGINIA.

CHARLESTON, November 6.—The day opened bright in this city, and early in the day Republicans ran in a heavy vote, followed later in the day by a heavy Democratic pull. The vote has increased in this city about 500, showing a gain for each party in the city and the districts of Charleston. Owing to the length of the ticket and the great amount of scratching, it is impossible to give any idea of the result.

WHEELING, W. Va., November 6.—The chairman of both State committees claim the State.

WHEELING, W. Va., November 6.—Berkely County gives the Republican ticket a majority of 100, a gain of 177. Grafton gives a Republican majority of 250, a gain of 100.

1884—Total vote, 132,162; Cleveland, 67,317; Blaine, 63,696; St. John, 939; Butler, 810.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, November 6.—The weather is cloudy. Heavy vote.

Up to 12:30 this afternoon 10,000 votes were polled in this city. This surpasses the heaviest previous record at the same hour by 4,000 votes. Hoard (Republican), candidate for governor, is running ahead of his ticket throughout the State. Harrison electors are receiving the full Republican vote.

MILWAUKEE, November 6, 10 p.m.—Returns are coming in very slowly, and it is impossible at this hour to give anything definite. Fifty-two cities and towns in the State, outside of Milwaukee, give a net Republican gain of 985. It is estimated from these figures that the Republican majority in the State will be about 15,000.

MILWAUKEE, November 6.—11 p.m.—Chairman Payne of the Republican Central Committee, estimates Harrison's majority in the State at 20,000.

1884—Total vote, 318,848; Cleveland, 146,454; Blaine, 161,147; St. John, 7,649; Butler, 4,537.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, November 6.—Advices, so far as received from the interior of Michigan up to 11 a.m., show that cloudy weather with local rains prevail. In this city the weather is cool and threatening, but no rain has yet fallen. A heavy vote was polled and good order maintained.

DETROIT, November 6.—The Republican State Committee claim the State by 15,000 plurality.

DETROIT, November 6.—The Republican State Committee claim Michigan for Harrison by 15,000 plurality. Luce, Republican, for Governor, has been cut in the cities and may run 3,000 behind the electoral ticket. Returns received by the committee from all quarters of the State show almost uniform Republican gains.
